

The Walker Weekly

Week of November 28th – December 2nd

Sight Words: this, that

Lowercase Handwriting: e, l, k, y

This upcoming week we will be finishing up our hibernation unit. We will take a closer look at where animals hibernate and discuss why not all animals hibernate. We will also read the fictional book Bear Snores On and work on sentence writing and identifying characters. I hope everyone has a wonderful Thanksgiving! Enjoy the time off with family!
